Anteo Group Announces New Marketing Director

Anteo Group, an award-winning Enterprise Java Staffing and ERP Consulting Company has announced another valuable addition to its corporate headquarters by bringing on board Anja Turner as Director of Marketing Communication. Turner joins Anteo Group from Enterprise Rent-A-Car, where she served as Assistant Marketing Manager overseeing European marketing and brand development initiatives.

"I am very excited to have Turner as part of the team," said Dion DeLoof, President of Anteo Group. "Targeted marketing campaigns and consistent PR efforts are essential to the continued rapid growth at Anteo Group and I'm confident Turner's extensive experience will help us tremendously. Following her direction, we look forward to implementing many new marketing initiatives."

During her three years with Enterprise Rent-A-Car Turner acquired a broad knowledge of print, outdoor, direct mail and online advertising. She has worked closely with production and print vendors as well as creative agencies. Her European background and experience in that territory make her a perfect fit for the development of an international marketing plan at Anteo Group. Turner holds a Bachelor's degree in Science from DePaul University.

At Anteo Group Turner will be responsible for the strategic development of Marketing Communication across all industries and practices to further increase the visibility of the company.

“I am extremely excited to be part of the energetic and fast-paced environment at Anteo Group,” said Turner.

The company’s leadership, forward thinking, and tremendous talent is a combination unmatched in this industry. I look forward to working with the team to continue to build brand and market awareness for Anteo Group.”

Anteo Group is an award-winning Enterprise Java Staffing and ERP Consulting Company. Through structured methodologies, Anteo Group simplifies project resourcing and implementation for emerging to Fortune 100 companies.
